

TOWNS UNDER SIEGE

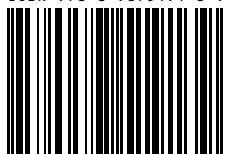

Developments in Australian takeovers and schemes

Towns Under Siege is a collection of chapters regarding developments in the law and practice of Australian takeovers and schemes. It features contributions from members of the Takeovers Panel, and also from the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, as well as practitioners from leading international law firm Herbert Smith Freehills.

- Chapter 1 Introduction
- Chapter 2 The origin of the Australian takeovers code
- Chapter 3 Takeovers: by the numbers
- Chapter 4 Takeovers: current regulatory issues
- Chapter 5 The Panel perspective
- Chapter 6 Shareholder activism
- Chapter 7 In defence of the realm: the role of the board
- Chapter 8 Contract law and merger agreements
- Chapter 9 Review of truth in takeovers
- Chapter 10 Takeover funding: the rhyme of the modern Mariner
- Chapter 11 The foreign investment framework
- Chapter 12 Competition clearance: Australia
- Chapter 13 Competition clearance: EU Commission and MOFCOM
- Chapter 14 Class actions and takeovers
- Chapter 15 Developments in the City
- Chapter 16 Takeover law reform proposals

This book contains a foreword by David Gonski AC

ISBN 978-0-9875191-3-9

9 780987 519139 >