

ASIA-PACIFIC COMPETITION LAW GUIDE 2020

01 February 2020 | Insight
Guides

The 5th edition of our guide to antitrust in the region explores the key developments as Asian enforcement continues to evolve

Compiled by the network of Herbert Smith Freehills competition specialists in Asia and Australia, the Asia-Pacific Competition Law Guide 2020 provides an overview of the competition law regimes in key Asia-Pacific jurisdictions. It also provides jurisdiction-specific information on both behavioural competition law and merger control.

Since the last edition of this regional guide, there have been a number of substantial changes and policy developments across the region. It is an essential handbook for anyone operating or investing in the region.
