

FINTECH 2021: FROM CRISIS TO CONSOLIDATION

13 October 2020 | Insight

As Covid-19 marks a paradigm shift towards financial innovation, our guide lays out the impact on a consolidating fintech sector

For most people, life and work have changed fundamentally since the Covid-19 crisis began – and there are concerns that the crisis could still worsen again. Most areas of the world’s economy have been profoundly affected too, and the Fintech sector is no exception. Fintech has been both an epicentre of the crisis – and has also been central to recovery efforts, as payments have moved online and governments have sought to disburse financial support efficiently.

Our global Fintech team looks ahead to what 2021 holds for the sector, including fundraising, partnerships, M&A, and regulatory developments.
