As the new US administration unveils a $2.3trn infrastructure plan, we size up the opportunities for foreign contractors and investors

United States President Joseph R. Biden Jr. and his administration recently made proposals concerning approximately US$2.3 trillion in government funds to be devoted to infrastructure-related projects in the United States. This is referred to as the Biden Infrastructure Plan, or formally, the “American Jobs Plan” (the “Plan”).

Click on the download button below to view a summary of the anticipated structure and reception, and particularly how the Plan may present opportunities for foreign contractors and investors.
