12:00 – 1:15pm BST / 4.30 – 5.15pm IST / 7.00 – 8.15pm SGT / 1.00 – 2.15pm CEST

This webinar unites India disputes experts from the UK and India to take a fresh look at the India-UK disputes corridor, with a particular focus on the amended LCIA Rules

Wing Shek (Senior Counsel, LCIA) and Kevin McCole (Managing Director, UK India Business Council) will join panellists from Herbert Smith Freehills and Nisith Desai Associates to discuss:

- The importance of the UK-India business corridor and London as a second home for Indian business
- London as a hub for India-related dispute resolution – views from India and the UK
- Latest developments from the London Court of International Arbitration – the new 2020 Rules
- What next for London – COVID, Brexit and the future

London-based Partner and Head of India Disputes, Nicholas Peacock, and Associate, Karan Talwar, will be joining the conversation.
