

A SONG A DAY KEEPS THE DOCTORS OKAY

Watch Lewis McDonald, our Global Head of Energy, sing his way through 21 songs in 21 days (plus a few bonus tracks). In a stroke of creativity, Lewis both lightened our LinkedIn feeds and raised over £10,000 for the NHS (the UK National Health Service) and Medecins Sans Frontieres by posting a daily series of videos of himself playing guitar and singing.

Funds were raised via a JustGiving page (which is still going, if you would like to donate) that links directly to the COVID-19 appeal for the doctors and volunteers in the NHS .

And of course, Medecins Sans Frontieres can always benefit from your donations. Their COVID-19 page can be accessed here: <https://lnkd.in/f-zdh33>
