

CEO MARK RIGOTTI DISCUSSES THE FUTURE OF THE LEGAL SECTOR IN PWC'S BUSINESS LEADERS IN CONVERSATION PODCAST SERIES

08 May 2019 | London
Legal Briefings

As part of PwC's Business Leaders in Conversation podcast series, CEO Mark Rigotti talks to PwC partner Tony Hodgson about what the legal sector could look like in the future, and how Herbert Smith Freehills is equipping itself for the changing world as well as the challenges and opportunities it presents.

Mark discusses how AI and data will play ever bigger roles, the impact on lawyers and their skills, and the need to innovate. He also shares his views on issues such as agile working and talent development.

"In a changing world, you don't want to follow what went before, you need to be innovative, which means taking on board some risk. Our DNA has to adapt," says Mark Rigotti, CEO, Herbert Smith Freehills.
