From 1 July 2018, the Federal Government's new Country of Origin Food Labelling Information Standards (Standard) will change the way food products are to be labelled.

Here are 10 questions for you to consider. For a more in-depth look at the Standard, see our article here.

Please click on the download link above to view PDF version.

Want to know more about how the Standard applies to you? Speak with one of our experts using the details below.
