

COVID-19: PRESSURE POINTS: THE POSSIBLE IMPACT ON M&A (GLOBAL)

19 March 2020 | Global
Legal Briefings

The rapidly evolving COVID-19 situation means that we cannot look too far ahead to predict what will happen next, and many of us will be dealing with much more immediate and important personal and business issues than M&A. However for those already involved in an M&A process or about to embark on one, there are some immediate issues for buyers and sellers to consider. In this briefing, we look at issues for (a) deals that are between signing and closing; (b) deals that are in the course of negotiation; and (c) deal processes that are about to launch. We also make some general observations that apply to all M&A transactions.
