WINTER MASTERCLASS

This recipe comes from our Melbourne office, and while unfortunately the City's vibrant and renowned hospitality scene remains closed as Victoria faces new restrictions, we were inspired by the European restaurants and bistro dining that line its famous laneways. Filmed just in time before lockdown, it is presented by Executive Chef, Brendan Rust, and he has curated this recipe that will surely provide a bit of classic home comfort, wherever you are.

The recipe is designed for any skill-level to cook and enjoy at home, and can be easily amended to either indulge for one, or increased to share with your family, flatmates and friends, with easy tips to include children in the kitchen, and also variations for dietary alternatives.
