

GUIDE TO GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION CLAUSES FOR CHINA-RELATED CONTRACTS

29 November 2016 | China
Guides

Welcome to the seventh edition of our essential guide to "Governing law and dispute resolution clauses for China-related contracts".

The latest version has been updated to include recent developments in China-related dispute resolution, including the confirmed position following CIETAC's internal "split", and a number of cases that suggest Chinese courts may be taking an increasingly "internationalised" approach to arbitration.

Popularly known as 'The Dragon Book', this guide is aimed principally at multinational companies who negotiate China-related commercial contracts, and need to understand the basics of Mainland Chinese law and practice that affect their choice of dispute resolution mechanism and governing law.
