International leading law firm Herbert Smith Freehills has advised Chargeurs Museum Solutions, international leader in museum services, on the finalisation of the acquisition of 100% of the capital of Event Communications Ltd, one of the global leaders in museum planning, design and delivery.

Founded in 1986 and with bases in London and Dublin, Event Communications Ltd ranks among the Top 5 museum designers worldwide and employs around 50 talents.

This acquisition significantly strengthens the breadth and depth of expertise with Chargeurs Museum Solutions and further extends its worldwide leadership in the fast-growing and fragmented museography market.

Event Communications will round out the Chargeurs Museum Solutions business line which already includes D&P, Design PM, Hysos, Leach, MET Studio, and Senfa.

Herbert Smith Freehills has advised Chargeurs Museum Solutions with a team composed of Paris partner Rebecca Major and Paris associates Annabelle Woerth, Chloë Stonex and Marie Badr on corporate aspects; Paris partner Emma Röhsler, and London senior associate Sian McKinley, on employment matters; London partner Isaac Zailer, and London associate James Tryfonos on tax aspects.
