24 January 2019 | London
Webinars

Recording: Originally broadcast 24 January 2019

In this edition of the private wealth webinar series, our speakers provided specialist insight into the issues covered in the recently launched latest edition of Herbert Smith Freehills' Guide to Private Wealth in Asia.

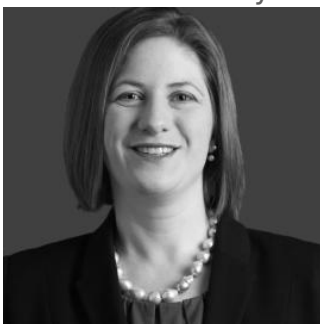

The Guide provides private clients, business people and lawyers with concise information on trusts, estates and probate issues in key private wealth centres across Asia. As well as updating the questions contained in prior editions this edition includes new information addressing registers of beneficial ownership.

It will provide a valuable insight for advisers across the globe who deal with clients in any of the major private wealth jurisdictions in Asia.
