

LIBOR IS BEING OVERTAKEN: WILL IT BE A CAR CRASH?

13 February 2019 | London

Legal Briefings - By Ceri Morgan, Jenny Stainsby, Alexandra Payne and Harry Edwards

This article considers the background and current market developments relating to the discontinuation of LIBOR. It examines the potential litigation likely to arise for legacy contracts and the alternative contractual fall-back provisions that are being proposed. Finally, it analyses the four markets most affected by the discontinuation of LIBOR—the loan, derivatives, bonds and securitisation markets.
