Guides

Read our assessment of the key lessons for insurance policyholders from last year's top cases.

This unique publication focuses on business implications and learnings, including:

- Prevention is better than cure - know your Policy wording (or take advice on it) to ensure it is appropriate to your circumstances.
- Don't give up on claims which, at first glance, look like they might be excluded or outside the Policy terms.
- Ensure you have robust internal processes for gathering information for disclosure to insurers.
