

PROCUREMENT BANS AND “SELF-CLEANING” UNDER SPANISH COMPETITION LAW

19 September 2019 | Madrid
Video – By Henar Gonzalez

In this video update, Henar Gonzalez (head of the Competition and Trade practice in Madrid) analyses the “self-cleaning” measures that companies should implement to prevent being excluded from public procurement processes, against the background of bans recently imposed by the Spanish Competition Authority (CNMC) on companies preventing them from tendering for contracts with the public authorities when they have taken part in consortiums or other arrangements with a view to distributing public contracts.
