

THE UK'S NATIONAL SECURITY AND INVESTMENT BILL - THE NEW FOREIGN INVESTMENT CONTROL REGIME: CHOICES AND DIRECTION

25 June 2020 | London
Legal Briefings

The UK Government has a significant choice to make over the next few weeks: it has to decide on its approach to protecting national security in a changing global landscape, while maintaining the country's appeal - built up over the last 40 years - as an attractive and predictable jurisdiction for business and trade, welcoming to friendly foreign investment. The Government announced the National Security and Investment Bill in December 2019 and it is soon to be published.
