

HERBERT SMITH FREEHILLS ADVISES SG FLEET ON A$200 MILLION ACQUISITION OF NLC

18 November 2015 | Australia, Brisbane, Melbourne, Perth, Sydney
News

Herbert Smith Freehills has advised SG Fleet on its A$200 million acquisition of NLC, a specialist provider of salary packaging services and novated leases.

SG Fleet is one of Australia's leading providers of vehicle leasing and fleet management services to corporate and government customers.

The transaction represents a further expansion of SG Fleet's existing salary packaging and novated lease business and is a significant milestone since its initial public offering in early 2014.

The Herbert Smith Freehills team was led by partners Philip Hart and Mark Currell, who were supported by senior associate Jacob Kahwaji.

Herbert Smith Freehills partner Philip Hart said, "We are delighted to have assisted the SG Fleet team on this strategic and complex acquisition which required wide-ranging specialist expertise from across the firm."

Lewis King Blumberg advised SG Fleet alongside Herbert Smith Freehills, and HWL Ebsworth advised the shareholders of NLC.

MEDIA CONTACT

For further information on this news article, please contact:

KELLY MURRAY, EXTERNAL
COMMUNICATIONS LEAD

SYDNEY

Tel: +61 2 9322 4472

Mob: +61 429 115 625

Email: kelly.murray@hsf.com