International law firms Herbert Smith Freehills and De Pardieu Brocas Maffei have advised on the signing of an exclusive agreement for the acquisition of 100% of Hivory, a French telecommunications tower operator, by Cellnex, Europe's leading operator of wireless telecommunications and broadcasting infrastructures, from Altice, French leader in combining the telecommunications and media, and Starlight Holdco.

With this agreement, Cellnex will acquire Hivory's portfolio of 10,500 sites in France that mainly serve SFR.

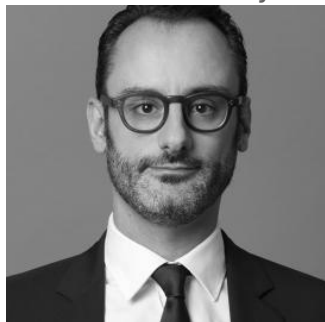

The transaction, which remains subject to the mandatory authorisation of the competition authorities, represents an investment of €5.2 billion by Cellnex, to be accompanied by an eight-year programme involving a further c.€0.9 billion for the roll-out of up to 2,500 new sites, among other projects.

Cellnex plans to launch a fully underwritten Rights Issue of up to €7 billion, which will be subject to the approval of the next shareholders' meeting, to finance the company's growth pipeline within an 18-month horizon, including this transaction.
