

HERBERT SMITH FREEHILLS PROMOTES 21 TO PARTNERSHIP

10 April 2017 | Global
Firm news

Leading international law firm Herbert Smith Freehills announced today the promotion of 21 lawyers to its global partnership. The promotions take effect on 1 May, 2017.

Demonstrating the firm's commitment to investing in its global network of offices and creating a diverse partnership, the appointments cover 8 offices, with 12 partners based in the UK and EMEA region, and 9 in Asia-Pacific. Six of this year's partner promotions are women.

This year is the first time there is a partner promotion in Alternative Legal Services (ALT). Libby Jackson, Global Head of ALT, has been promoted to the firm's partnership.

This promotion round follows the promotions in December 2016 of five new partners in Australia, from the firm's global project finance, projects and environment & planning teams.

The new partners are focussed on supporting the firm's clients in core practices and sectors including corporate, disputes, employment, pensions & incentives, finance, projects, real estate, energy, TMT and banks.

The new partners and their principal areas of practice are:

UK and EMEA

Greig Anderson - Disputes, London

Rachel Campbell - Finance, Paris

Paul Chases - Real Estate, London

David Coulling - Corporate, London

Reza Dadbakhsh – Corporate, London

Javier de Carvajal – Disputes, Madrid

Nish Dissanayake – Corporate, London

Libby Jackson – ALT, London
