Herbert Smith Freehills today announced the promotion of 29 Australian lawyers to the role of senior associate.

Effective from 1 July 2019, the promotions span the firm's Australian offices and include lawyers from its Corporate; Disputes; Employment, Industrial Relations and Safety; and Finance, Real Estate & Projects practices.

Andrew Pike, Executive Partner, Australia, said: "As a firm, we are committed to developing talent, so I'm extremely happy to announce the promotion of these 29 high-performing lawyers.

"Their unwavering commitment to clients and the firm, their outstanding legal skills and their demonstrated leadership capabilities have been rightly recognised in these promotions and will serve them well in this next stage of their careers.

"I congratulate them all and look forward to their ongoing success. I know that they will continue to deliver great results for our clients and the firm and serve as inspiration to our younger team members."
