

HERBERT SMITH FREEHILLS STRENGTHENS SINGAPORE ASSET FINANCE PRACTICE WITH NEW HIRE

07 January 2019 | Singapore
News

Leading global law firm Herbert Smith Freehills has hired senior associate Amanda Teoh to join its Singapore asset finance team.

Amanda's hire is the latest investment in the firm's global asset finance offering following the hire of partners Rex Rosales and Jahnvi Ramachandran in London, and Siva Subramaniam and Samuel Kolehmainen in Singapore in August 2018. The lateral hires were part of the firm's strategic expansion plans and also complemented the existing global asset finance practice with their experience in the aviation finance sector.

"Amanda's appointment demonstrates the firm's ongoing investment in its aviation practice and its commitment to this sector and region, and we are delighted to have her on board," said Siva.

"Amanda is a very talented lawyer and she brings with her a wealth of knowledge of the Asian aviation sector that will complement our existing teams' expertise in the region," said Samuel.

NOTES FOR EDITORS

1. Amanda has experience in the aviation finance sector and specialises in aircraft financing, leasing and restructuring transactions.

1. Prior to joining Herbert Smith Freehills, she worked in the asset finance team at Clifford Chance in Singapore, trained at King & Wood Mallesons in Sydney, and completed a two-year judicial associateship with the President of the NSW Court of Appeal. A graduate of the University of New South Wales, Amanda was admitted as a solicitor of the NSW Supreme Court Australia in 2011, as a barrister and solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand in 2015 and as a solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales in 2018.
