News

Our sponsorship as Official Legal Partner of The Australian Ballet, Australia's only national touring ballet company, provides a unique opportunity for us to engage with our staff and clients.

Our relationship also provides a meaningful platform which reflects our diversity and inclusion strategy and aligns with The Australian Ballet's own motto caring for tradition, daring to be different. To this end, we are the Production Partner of one contemporary work for The Australian Ballet each year to emulate our joint commitment to diversity in the repertoire.

This year we are Production Partner for New York Dialects and are delighted to share with you the following behind the scenes videos with you.
