

MAJOR LEASING

REAL ESTATE DELIVERED BETTER

The decisions you make in relation to your property assets can have long-term financial and practical implications for your business. By acting for developers, investors, funders and occupiers, we have the depth and breadth of experience in the corporate occupation field to help you make the right decisions.

With a particular focus on headquarter relocations, we can advise you on portfolio acquisitions, the disposal of legacy properties and the establishment of income producing structures such as sale and leasebacks.

We also offer ongoing asset management support as and when required throughout the duration of your occupation. Our integrated capabilities enable us to provide a seamless service and help you realise your objectives and requirements at each stage of the corporate occupation cycle.

For landlord clients, we help streamline the management of property assets – by providing a full real estate service, you can rely on our knowledge of the property at hand to help execute your letting strategy.
