EXPERIENCE

Aaron advises clients on complex commercial disputes in Asia across a broad range of industry sectors. He has experience representing clients in litigation proceedings, but focuses particularly on international arbitration proceedings. He has handled arbitrations under the HKIAC, SIAC and UNCITRAL arbitration rules as well as ad hoc cases.

Based in Hong Kong, Aaron regularly works with colleagues from others offices on arbitration matters.

Aaron's experience includes advising:

- one of Asia's largest private equity firms in HKIAC arbitration proceedings against another leading private equity firm, arising out of a Korean M&A transaction
- a project company in SIAC arbitration proceedings on issues arising out of the construction of refinery and petrochemical complex under the EPC Contract
- an Asian satellite operator in Hong Kong arbitration proceedings under the UNCITRAL arbitration rules in respect of claims arising out a satellite sharing agreement
