EXPERIENCE

Aria specialises on advising clients on a range of corporate transactions across a number of industries. Aria has particular experience in:

- public M&A transactions, including takeover bids and schemes of arrangement;
- private M&A transactions, including acquisitions and exits; and
- general corporate governance and commercial advice.

Aria also brings significant international experience, having worked for several years at a magic circle law firm in London, where she advised international clients on UK and international cross border transactions prior to joining the HSF corporate team.
