EXPERIENCE

Caitlin specialises in international commercial and investment treaty arbitration as well as issues of public international law.

Caitlin qualified into the International Arbitration team after completing her training at the firm, which included a six month secondment to the Disputes team in our Tokyo office.

Caitlin's experience includes advising:

- Standard Chartered Bank and a subsidiary in an ICSID arbitration arising out of the financing of a power station in Tanzania
- an Indian power company on an ICC arbitration in London in relation to the development of an Ultra-Mega Project in India and related claims
- an Asian Government Department on procedural steps and strategies for responding to investment treaty claims
- a major Japanese information technology and telecommunications company on potential ICC arbitration proceedings seated in London concerning the disclosure of confidential information
