EXPERIENCE

Based in London, Damien helps banking sector clients resolve or navigate major disputes.

Damien specialises in providing advice on high-value, contentious issues facing domestic and international banks, investment funds, private equity houses and other financial institutions. These include disputes about corporate finance transactions, investment advice, fund management, securities trading, project finance, private equity investment, enforcement of security and structured finance.

He has helped clients with company and commercial disputes in London and Asia across a wide range of industries, in both High Court litigation and international arbitration.

Damien is ranked in the Hall of Fame in Legal 500 UK 2022 for Commercial Litigation: Premium and Banking Litigation: Investment and Retail. He is also listed as a Band 1 individual in Chambers UK 2021 for Banking Litigation, where they comment that he " is widely regarded as one of the finest litigators in the banking and finance arena". Damien was named as the Dispute Resolution Individual of the Year (London) in the Legal 500 UK 2019 awards.

Damien's experience includes advising:

- Goldman Sachs in a US$1.2 billion claim brought by the Libyan Investment Authority in relation to a series of leveraged derivatives transactions, featuring allegations of undue influence and unconscionable bargain
 - Lloyds Banking Group and its former directors on a shareholder claim (by way of a group litigation order) arising from the acquisition of HBOS in 2008, alleging misstatement negligence and breach of fiduciary duties
 - Credit Suisse in its successful defence of a claim over the sale of an interest in an oil field in Azerbaijan
 - Pioneer in its successful appeal to the Court of Appeal over the correct interpretation of clause 2(a) (iii) of the ISDA Master Agreement
 - UBS in relation to the regulatory and criminal proceedings following the Kweku Adoboli rogue trading incident in 2011
 - Goldman Sachs in its successful defence of a claim by IFE, a mezzanine investor fund, alleging misrepresentation in relation to the information memorandum issued on syndication of the investment.
