EXPERIENCE

Danielle is a Disputes Resolution lawyer based in our London office. She advises clients in the context of all forms of dispute resolution, including High Court litigation, arbitration and mediation. Many of these disputes involve international elements.

Danielle has worked with a variety of clients spanning across different sectors, including in the Technology, Media & Telecommunications, Consumer Products, Financial Services, and Energy sectors. She has also previously been seconded to the Singapore office.

Danielle's experience includes advising:

- an online gambling company in its defence of High Court proceedings involving allegations of civil fraud and breach of directors' duties
- a Chinese entity in connection with potential fraud proceedings arising out of the acquisition of a global media rights company
- a global truck manufacturer in a multi-jurisdictional contractual and product liability dispute
- a power producer in an ICC arbitration in respect of its claim for breach of a power purchase agreement
- a global apparel manufacturer in a SIAC arbitration in respect of its claims for breach of a supply contract and infringement of IP rights
