

DOROTHY LIVINGSTON
CONSULTANT

London

Dorothy is a consultant in competition, regulation and trade.

+44 20 7466 2061

Dorothy.Livingston@hsf.com

BACKGROUND

Dorothy holds a degree in jurisprudence and qualified as a solicitor 1972. She was a partner at the firm from 1980–2008.

Appointments

Member Competition Law Committee of the City of London Law Society

Publications

- Competition Law and Practice (Sweet & Maxwell 1995)
- The European Union – Law, Financial Institutions and the Banking Crisis (Capital Markets Law Journal, OUP, Jan 2009)
- Business Innovation and the Law: Perspectives from Competition Law Practices (Edward Elgar 2013)
- Brexit and Competition Law – Competition Law Insight November 2015

KEY SERVICES

Competition, Regulation and Trade
Finance

KEY SECTORS

Banks and other Financial Institutions
Infrastructure

EXPERIENCE

Dorothy brings clients in the financial sector a unique combination of skills with her background in financial and banking law and her in-depth knowledge of EU law, including competition law.

Through her work as a leader of Herbert Smith Freehills' BREXIT focus group, Dorothy delivers solutions for clients to resolve adverse consequences from the UK's possible exit from the EU.

Dorothy is the chairman of the Financial Law Committee of the City of London Law Society (CLLS) and represents it on the Treasury Banking Liaison Panel which considers important subsidiary legislation and the Code of Practice under the Banking Act 2009 related to the Special Resolution Regime for failing banks.