EXPERIENCE

Ena works with clients to resolve their complex commercial disputes. She has a wide variety of commercial dispute resolution experience, having acted on:

- significant construction disputes involving delay claims, time bars, variation claims, liquidated damages claims and calls on security
- litigation and arbitrations involving complex contractual interpretation questions
- disputes between power utilities, contractors, suppliers and customers in relation to infrastructure projects
- land administration, valuation and planning disputes

Recent experience includes acting for and advising:

- a global mining company to recover cost overruns from a contractor in relation to the construction of major mining infrastructure in WA
- a global oil and gas company in relation to a major LNG project, involving defective works claims, insurance law issues and other contractual issues
- a State utility in relation to a land acquisition and land valuation dispute
- a global company operating in the mineral sands sector in defending a class action against it in the Federal Court of Australia
