EXPERIENCE

Fiorella's practice focuses on commercial dispute resolution and corporate crime and investigations. She has worked on a wide range of complex investigations and commercial disputes for both local and international clients. Her experience includes dispute resolution through litigation in the South African courts and domestic arbitrations, as well as international arbitrations under the auspices of the ICC, LCIA, AFSA, HKIAC and ad hoc arbitrations.

In 2021 Fiorella was ranked as a Rising Star in EMEA by the IFLR and as a Rising Star in White Collar Crime by the Expert Guides.

Fiorella is fluent in English and Spanish and holds an Advanced Certificate in International Arbitration from the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb), is a board member of the Young Members Group of the CIArb (Johannesburg branch) and is involved in the establishment of the South African chapter of the Women's White Collar Defence Association.

Fiorella's experience includes:

- representing Gartner Inc in relation to its involvement and participation in the Nugent Commission of Inquiry into the Tax Administration and Governance by the South African Revenue Service during 2018
  - representing a multinational European headquartered manufacturer of electronic & communications devices in highly publicised criminal trial proceedings in relation to corruption charges brought by the South African prosecuting authorities against the company's South African subsidiary
  - representing Oya Energy/G7, Mulilo-Total, EDF and Scatec in judicial review proceedings challenging the legality of the process awarding preferred bidder status in the Risk Mitigation Independent Power Producer Procurement Programme (RMIPPP)
  - representing Takealot in intervention and review proceedings launched against the ICASA and the South African Post Office ("SAPO") in respect of SAPO's attempt to monopolise the delivery of all parcels under 1kg
  - advising various clients in relation to the repudiation of insurance claims arising from the Covid-19 movement restrictions, including ad hoc international arbitration proceedings pertaining to the repudiation of a reinsurance claim, which dealt with various interpretation issues in respect of the aggregation of losses
  - international arbitration proceedings seated in Hong Kong, in respect of a claim for approximately US$500 million pertaining to the enforcement of performance obligations under promissory notes issued for the sale of Trade Finance Assets
