

HERBERT
SMITH FREEHILLS

JOJO FAN

SENIOR CONSULTANT

Hong Kong

Jojo is a specialist in commercial litigation, with a particular focus on disputes that have China-related or cross-border elements. Her key clients include banks, financial institutions and corporates (including listed companies).

 +852 28456639

 Jojo.Fan@hsf.com

BACKGROUND

Jojo graduated from the University of Hong Kong with bachelor's degrees in law and social sciences (government and laws), and completed the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws at the same university. She is qualified as a solicitor in Hong Kong and in England & Wales.

KEY SERVICES

Dispute Resolution
Corporate Crime and Investigations

KEY SECTORS

Banks and other Financial Institutions

EXPERIENCE

Fluent in English, Cantonese and Mandarin, Jojo is a specialist in commercial litigation, with a particular focus on disputes that have China-related or cross-border elements. She regularly advises banks, financial institutions and corporates on various contentious matters.

Jojo has considerable experience advising on financial product mis-selling cases, fraudulent and unauthorised trading claims, corporate loan recovery, shareholders' and boardroom disputes, joint venture disputes, and arbitration-related court proceedings. Jojo has also acted in proceedings involving injunctive and interim measures.

Her recent experience includes advising financial institutions on regulatory inquiries and investigations, disciplinary proceedings and civil proceedings in the High Court.

Jojo was seconded to UBS AG (Hong Kong Branch) during 2016, acting as its APAC Head of Anti-Bribery and Corruption, a role with local, regional and global responsibilities. During her secondment, she interacted with front office business and litigation teams across Asia.