EXPERIENCE

Marta has experience on dealing with dispute cases both in civil and insolvency matters, including advocacy before the Spanish Courts.

Her professional practice is oriented to support clients on difficult scenarios of pre-insolvency and insolvency and advising financial creditors in Insolvency proceedings.

Apart from her experience acting as counsel of clients in Insolvency proceedings in front of the Spanish Courts, she has expertise on different types of civil cases.

Marta's experience includes advising:

- a real estate and financial company on its position, as creditor of different companies, in an insolvency situation in a portfolio called "Project Goya". Our services consist on the advice rendered to the client in relation to urge the compulsory insolvency against the debtors. In particular, our services include not just the request of insolvency order to the Court but also the advice during all the phases of the Insolvency proceedings

- a real estate and finance company on its position, as creditor of different companies, in an insolvency situation in a portfolio called "Project Normandia". Our services consist on the advice rendered to the client in relation to urge the compulsory insolvency against the debtors. In particular, our services include not just the request of insolvency order to the Court but also the advice during all the phases of the Insolvency proceedings
- a leading English bank on the insolvency proceedings of its debtor in order to recover the debt
- a real estate developer on an ICC arbitration regarding several real estate projects. The dispute relates to the termination of the relevant contracts and the compensation for damages claimed as a consequence of those terminations
- a global investment management firm on legal advice and representation related to the acquisition of a claim portfolio from a Spanish energy company
- a private bank on banking litigation and insolvency proceedings related to a complex non-performing loan (NPL) lodged by a former sportsman
