EXPERIENCE

Paul has worked in the M&A team in Herbert Smith Freehills' Perth and Melbourne offices and has been involved in a number of Takeovers Panel proceedings.

As part of his practice, he also regularly advises on general corporate advisory matters including head office and corporate governance, the ASX Listing Rules and Australia's foreign investment laws. Paul has worked closely with clients in the mining and agricultural industries.

Paul has advised:

- Independence Group NL on its $1.8 billion acquisition of Sirius Resources NL by way of scheme of arrangement, which also involved a simultaneous demerger of certain of Sirius' assets
- Catalpa Resources on its $1.1 billion merger by way of scheme of arrangement with Conquest Mining and contemporaneous acquisition of Newcrest's interests in the Cracow and Mt Rawdon gold mines (to form Evolution Mining)
- Territory Resources Limited on the competing takeover bids by Exxaro Resources and Noble Group
- OZ Minerals Limited's proposed $2.6 billion scheme of arrangement with China Minmetals and its subsequent $1.71 billion asset sale to China Minmetals
- Olam International Limited's acquisition of the almond assets of Timbercorp group (in liquidation) for $128 million and Timbercorp Primary Infrastructure Fund for $160 million
