EXPERIENCE

Philip specialises in commercial litigation, with a particular interest in insolvency, pensions and banking disputes. He advises on a broad range of general commercial litigation matters, with an emphasis on insolvency (including cross-border disputes), banking, fintech and pensions.

Philip's experience includes advising:

- the former non-executive directors of Carillion on its insolvency plans for the company
- the joint administrators of Nortel Networks in the global insolvency and sale of the Nortel group
- a major investment bank on a worldwide freezing injunction against an ultrahigh net worth individual
- two Trinidadian prisoners on an appeal to the Privy Council of criminal convictions on a pro bono basis
