EXPERIENCE

Based in Hong Kong, Tommy advises multinational and domestic Chinese corporates, investment banks and private equity firms on a wide range of M&A transactions, including public takeovers, private investments, cross border acquisitions and joint ventures.

In particular, he has substantial experience working with banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions on a range of corporate, commercial and regulatory matters.

In addition to M&A work, Tommy also helps clients with capital markets and Hong Kong Stock Exchange regulatory matters. He uses his multidisciplinary expertise to provide clients with valuable insight into complex transactions involving public and private elements, ensuring effective transaction planning, execution and compliance, whilst delivering commercial outcomes.

As an experienced M&A lawyer with trilingual and cross-cultural capabilities, Tommy helps clients navigate through challenging, multi-party Chinese inbound and outbound transactions.

Tommy's expertise is widely recognised in a number of legal practitioners guides, including Who's Who Legal, Chambers Asia, Legal 500, IFLR 1000 and PLC Which Lawyer?.
