

HAPPY ACCIDENTS: JOHN TABERNER

11 April 2018 | Alumni Insights

“I remember getting up and saying that the firm had more character and more characters than a Dickens novel. That’s what appealed to me about the place.”

Retired partner, John Taberner has enjoyed a long and highly successful career at Herbert Smith Freehills, but the way he describes his entry into the field makes it sound like little more than a quirk of fate. We are proud to share his story with you.
