

BREWSTER AND BEYOND: AN UPDATE ON LITIGATION FUNDING

23 September 2020 | Australia

Legal Briefings - By Claire Jago, Helen Mould, James Page, Harry Edwards and Damian Grave

Following a 2019 High Court decision invalidating a particular statutory basis used by courts to make common fund orders, there has been significant uncertainty in relation to litigation funding in class actions.

Despite a number of recent decisions of the Federal Court on this point, it is presently unclear how a court is likely to treat the commission sought by a litigation funder in any given class action. In addition, recent State and Commonwealth legislative changes have contributed to the dynamic environment.

A briefing paper setting out our observations and insights is now available.
