Podcasts

On the new Herbert Smith Freehills Podcast channel, tune in as our Employment and Industrial Relations experts give an update on current and emerging industrial relations and employment issues.

Episode 1: Future of Work: New employee activism and the union movement in Australia

Partners Anthony Longland and Natalie Gaspar from our Employment, Industrial Relations and Safety team, discuss some of the results from a global survey presented in our report the 'Future of Work: Adapting to the democratised workplace' which warns of an unprecedented rise in workforce activism ahead and what the findings might mean for the union movement in Australia.

Episode 2: Podcast on our key employment and IR predictions for 2020

Our latest podcast focuses on the key issues we expect to see in employment and industrial relations as we look ahead to 2020. Melbourne Partners Anthony Wood and Natalie Gaspar share their trends and predictions covering areas such as underpayment compliance, the proposed changes to annualised salary provisions and key legislative changes. It's essential listening to understand the biggest issues we are seeing for our clients in employment and IR in the coming year.
