

HERBERT
SMITH FREEHILLS

JOHN WHITEOAK

PARTNER

London

John is a disputes and restructuring lawyer and co-leads the firm's global Restructuring, Turnaround and Insolvency practice. He advises on a broad range of general commercial litigation and contentious insolvency matters.

 +44 20 7466
2010

 john.whiteoak@hsf.com

KEY SERVICES

Commercial Litigation
Restructuring, Turnaround and Insolvency

EXPERIENCE

In addition to general commercial litigation matters, John's disputes expertise includes cross-border disputes, corporate fraud and recovery, as well as complex banking and tax disputes and dispute resolution. John also has significant restructuring and insolvency expertise advising on a broad range of contentious insolvency matters, including cross-border disputes and pension regulatory disputes. His work involves some of the largest and most high-profile insolvency, restructuring and pensions disputes in the United Kingdom, including cases with global ramifications.

John acts for a blue-chip client list, including hedge funds, administrators, banks, accountants, trustees and corporates.

John has been praised for his 'very commercial and straight-talking, no-nonsense approach' and being 'energetic and hugely creative' in Legal 500 UK 2021.

John has advised:

- Oilexco (in administration) on significant and landmark litigation against a creditor, involving litigation in the English High Court, Court of Appeal and the US Bankruptcy Court
- Phoenix Venture Holdings, various other companies in the MG Rover group, and present and former directors and officers of companies in the MG Rover group as part of the ongoing investigation by the UK Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (now the Department for Business, Innovation and Skills) into the collapse of the car company in early 2005
- Thames River Capital and GML on a successful high court litigation against the majority shareholders of First Investment Bank, a Bulgarian bank