

COVID-19 MARKET DISCLOSURES AND MANAGING THE ASSOCIATED LITIGATION RISKS

25 October 2021 | Insight
Legal Briefings

Since the start of the pandemic many listed companies have sought to strengthen their balance sheet by raising additional capital from shareholders. This article considers the types of disclosures relating to Covid-19 that have been made to the market when doing so, the potential litigation risks that may be faced in the context of increased securities class actions activity in this jurisdiction, and how those risks may be appropriately managed.
