

CONSTRUCTION ARBITRATION PODCAST

27 January 2020 | Global
Podcasts

Complex construction projects commonly give rise to disputes, which are often referred to arbitration. But what makes a construction arbitration different from any other type of commercial arbitration?

In this podcast series, our International Arbitration and Construction & Infrastructure Disputes experts join forces to explore what makes a construction arbitration different from any other type of commercial arbitration.

The series will feature episodes discussing the various stages of a construction arbitration, including engaging experts, managing documents and factual witnesses, preparing a case and managing the arbitration procedure itself.

Latest Episode: Episode 5: Managing construction arbitration procedure

Craig Tevendale, Liz Kantor and Kemi Wood look at what to bear in mind when managing the procedure in construction arbitration
