We are delighted to be supporting the Public Law Project again in running its annual Judicial Review Trends and Forecasts conference. This year the conference will take place as a week of online seminars on the theme of 'accountability and the constitution'.

We are delighted to be supporting the Public Law Project again in running its annual Judicial Review Trends and Forecasts conference. This year the conference will take place as a week of online seminars on the theme of 'accountability and the constitution'.

The sessions will begin on Monday 18 October, and will include a keynote speech by the Rt Hon Suella Braverman MP QC, Attorney General.

Andrew Lidbetter, Nusrat Zar, Jasveer Randhawa and James Wood of Herbert Smith Freehills will be among the other speakers.

Sessions will run from Monday 18 October - Friday 22 October. Topics covered include:

- Top Public Law Cases of the Year
- Judicial Review of the Regulators
- Judicial Review and justice during the pandemic
- Interveners and third parties in Judicial Review
