EXPERIENCE

Martin has particular expertise in large-scale corporate and project finance, corporate restructuring and turnaround, and acquisition and leveraged finance. He advises some of Australia's leading banks, sponsors and mining and resources organisation, and is recognised in Chambers, Who's Who Legal - Australia 2019, Doyle's Guide in the 'Leading' category, IFLR1000 as a 'notable practitioner', and Best Lawyers in 2014-2020.

Martin's recent acquisition and leveraged finance experience includes acting for the sponsors or the financiers on:

- The unitranche financing arrangements for Arrotex (being the group formed by the merger of the Arrow and Apotex pharmaceutical businesses)
- The financing of the management buyout of part of the business of JANA Investment Advisers
- The senior and mezzanine debt facilities provided to the Rivet Group, including to finance the acquisition of SMS Rental
- The restructuring and sale of the Rivet group, including dealings with a consortium led by SC Lowy
- The financing for a potential bidder of the acquisition of the Loy Yang B power station
- The merger financing in connection with the merger of Federation Centres with Novion Property Group to form Vicinity Centres (at the time, Australia's second largest REIT)

His other experience includes acting for:

- A syndicate of banks in connection with financing and restructuring of a multi-fuel cogeneration plant in Worsley, Western Australia
- An international consortium of sponsors in connection with the US$7.2bn project financing of the Roy Hill iron ore project in Western Australia (Project Finance International Asia Pacific Deal of the Year)

- National Australia Bank and ANZ Banking Group on a range of secured and unsecured financing transactions
- Industry Funds Management in connection with a recent commercial property financing transaction
- The purchaser in connection with its acquisition of National Can Industries
- Toll Holdings on its syndicated, club and United States private placement (USPP) financing arrangements
- OZ Minerals (and, previously, Zinifex) in connection with its financing arrangements
