EXPERIENCE

Simon leads the firm's market-leading disputes practice in Asia and focuses on international arbitration and arbitration-related litigation. A specialist advocate, he appears regularly as lead counsel before courts and tribunals in the world's foremost arbitration centres.

His practice covers investment treaty and commercial arbitration under all of the major arbitral rules, with particular expertise in complex claims in fraud and breach of warranty, as well as post-M&A, joint venture and shareholder disputes.

Simon has acted for governments, state-owned entities, sovereign wealth funds and corporations across a range of industries, including in the energy, private equity, cryptocurrency, finance, hospitality and TMT sectors.
