EXPERIENCE

Although a litigator, Shaun's primary goal is to assist his clients to use intellectual property - whether by way of enforcement or challenge - to obtain strong commercial outcomes and an enhanced competitive position in the markets in which they operate.

He has acted in major cases on patent validity and infringement, with an emphasis on the pharmaceutical industry, trade marks and copyright. He successfully acted in the only two pharmaceutical patent cases to be heard by the High Court of Australia in the last decade.

Although primarily based in Melbourne, Shaun works with local and international clients and conducts litigation in other jurisdictions. He has over 25 years' experience, including five years based in our Jakarta office, and time in our Singapore office. Shaun helps clients negotiate their way through the Australian aspects of multi-jurisdictional disputes. He is also skilled at assembling and managing cross-border teams of lawyers to provide his clients with maximum subject matter expertise, coverage and efficiencies.

Shaun is the client relationship partner for two of the firm's global pharmaceutical clients that are headquartered in North America.
