EXPERIENCE

Azlin is highly experienced in assisting banks to structure wholesale and retail Islamic financing solutions and products.

She has experience in Asia and the Middle East acting for banks and customers on Islamic and conventional financing transactions, familiar with Islamic financial structures.

In addition to Islamic financing, sukuk, murabaha and securities, she advises on conventional finance, including syndicated lending, debt issues, project and asset finance, and restructuring.

Her experience includes advising on:

- an Islamic compliant vessel financing, acting for the acquirer
- an Islamic compliant murabahah real finance property transaction for real property based in England
- a cross border syndicated loan to a bank operating in India
