EXPERIENCE

Having worked in Herbert Smith Freehills' Belfast office since 2012, Lyn maintains overall responsibility for the delivery of legal services within the Alternative Legal Services Disputes Practice as well as leading the ALT New York and Johannesburg teams. In her role, Lyn manages an international team of lawyers, legal analysts and eDiscovery specialists in Belfast, London, New York and Johannesburg in the delivery of an expanding range of Disputes service offerings.

Lyn considers it a primary strategic objective to respond innovatively to client demand and changing market conditions and the Alternative Legal Services team works strategically with the firm's international Disputes practice to develop bespoke solutions and products for clients.

Lyn has led three major Employee and Community Engagement projects in collaboration with Arts and Business Northern Ireland, for which HSF has won three awards.
