Everything employers need to know, including chapters on D&I, tackling harassment, global mobility and post-Covid policies

The new 2022 edition of our annual Guide to Employment and Workplace Relations in Australia has been published, providing a comprehensive and practical overview of Australian employment regulation.

This updated Legal Guide is intended as a reference tool for in-house counsel, line managers and HR professionals to obtain quick answers to the most common employment issues. We hope you find it useful.

Highlights from this year's Legal Guide include:

ICON1.PNG  	A summary of National Employment Standards and modern awards - particularly helpful in gaining an immediate understanding of the key tenets of Australian employment regulation	ICON2.PNG  	Chapters on discrimination, sexual harassment, diversity and workplace rights - following much political and social discussion last year, addressing systemic barriers for success at work will be key
ICON3.PNG  	Chapters on transfer of business, global mobility and engaging independent contractors - useful when dealing with cross border transactions and business mergers and acquisitions	ICON4.PNG  	A summary on enterprise bargaining and responding to industrial action - helping you to achieve a strong industrial relations strategy

ICON5.PNG  	NEW TO THIS YEAR'S EDITION: Employer response to the COVID-19 pandemic  This new chapter to the Guide considers the legal risks associated with employer responses to the COVID-19 pandemic.
